

Kawkawlin Township

Community Description

Kawkawlin Township is located north of Bay City and Monitor Township along Saginaw Bay. Lands within the Township are largely agricultural with some woodlands and wetlands located near the Bay and along the Kawkawlin River. According to the 2000 Census the population of Kawkawlin Township is 5,104.

Administrative Structure

Parks and recreation functions in Kawkawlin Township are administered by a seven-member Parks and Recreation Committee. The committee members are appointed by the Township Board and their actions are subject to Board approval. The Township hires someone to mow the grass in the park each year. The Kawkawlin Ball League maintains the ball fields.

The Kawkawlin Ball League and the Tri Village League work with Kawkawlin Township in offering a summer ball program. The local American Youth Soccer program and the Bay Area Soccer Association use both parks in Kawkawlin for practice and some games. Approximately 30 to 40 volunteers assist by coaching and working in the concession stand for each ball season. More volunteers assist with special events. The Park and Recreation Committee has improved the entire park with many volunteer hours and volunteers.
